A BILL

To expand the Rest and Recuperation Leave program for members of the Armed Forces serving in the Iraqi theater of operations in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom to include travel and transportation to the members' permanent station or home.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. EXPANSION OF REST AND RECUPERATION
2 LEAVE PROGRAM TO INCLUDE TRAVEL AND
3 TRANSPORTATION TO PERMANENT STATION
4 OR HOME.

5 (a) EXPANSION.—The Secretary of Defense shall ex-
6 pand the Central Command Rest and Recuperation Leave
7 program to provide travel and transportation allowances
8 to each member of the Armed Forces participating in the 9 program in order to permit such member to travel at the 10 expense of the United States from an original airport of 11 debarkation to the permanent station or home of such 12 member.

13 (b) ALLOWANCES AUTHORIZED.—The travel and
14 transportation allowances that may be provided under 15 subsection (a) are the travel and transportation allowances
16 specified in section 404(d) of title 37, United States Code.

17 (c) CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER ALLOWANCES.—
18 Travel and transportation allowances provided for travel
19 under subsection (a) are in addition to any other travel
20 and transportation or other allowances that may be pro-
21 vided for such travel by law.

22 (d) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

23 (1) The term “Central Command Rest and Re-
24 cuperation Leave program” means the Rest and Re-
25 cuperation Leave program for certain members of 26 the Armed Forces serving in the Iraqi theater of op-

1 erations in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom as
2 established by the United States Central Command
3 on September 25, 2003.
